

COLORADO JUVENILE DEFENDER CENTER
===== WE BELIEVE IN YOUTH =====

Questions about deregistration or expungement for juveniles?

We can help. At the Colorado Juvenile Defender Center, we represent people all over the state with juvenile records in deregistration and expungement proceedings. We also engage in impact litigation and policy advocacy on behalf of our clients. Call us if you need:

- Advice regarding the impact of a particular disposition on later deregistration or expungement eligibility
- Advice regarding an deregistration or expungement case
- Advice on eligibility for deregistration and expungement
- Advice on a potential or active appeal
- Model briefs on the impact and/or efficacy of juvenile registration
- Somewhere to refer indigent clients for deregistration or expungement

Please also call us if you see:

- Courts failing to comply with statutes applicable to deregistration and expungement
- Courts denying deregistration due to drug use or other irrelevant factors
- Courts denying deregistration based on failure to provide proof of completion of sex-offender specific treatment
- Juveniles being subjected to phallometric testing
- Juveniles being assessed using tools intended for adult sex offenders.

You can reach us at (303) 435-7232 or admin@cjdc.org. Our deregistration and expungement attorney, Emma Mclean-Riggs, is available at fellow@cjdc.org.
