

2023 OCR FALL CONFERENCE

LOCAL ACTIVITIES

NEARBY HIKING TRAILS

Keystone Gulch Trailhead - 4 min drive

Located at 22 Keystone Gulch Rd, Keystone, CO 80435. The Keystone Gulch Road follows the boundary of the Keystone Ski Area at the beginning and eventually enters the ski area in the North Peak area. The trail gradually climbs through a heavily forested area for about 5 miles.

Tenderfoot Mountain Trailhead - 10 min drive

Located at Tenderfoot Trail Rd, Dillon, CO 80435. The Tenderfoot Trail travels through sagebrush and lodgepole pine forests. The views of the Tenmile Range, the Gore Range and Dillon Reservoir from this trail are impressive. This is a south-facing trail and is generally free of snow.

Straight Creek Trailhead - 13 min drive

Located at the intersection of Highway 51 and Tenderfoot Trail Road. The trail parallels I-70 the entire way up to Eisenhower Tunnel and is an old double-track road. It will cross Straight Creek a few times as you climb gradually up the valley through a lodge pole pine forest.

ALPENGLOW SPA

Onsite at Keystone Lodge

The spa is open from 9am-6pm with spa services offered from 10am-6pm. Spa amenities are complimentary when receiving a spa service and for lodge guests. Spa amenities include an indoor and outdoor hot tub, eucalyptus steam room, dry sauna, and an outdoor heated pool. Fitness center is open 24/7 for lodge guests with a room key access.

GROUP WELLNESS ACTIVITY - YOGA

Onsite at Keystone Lodge Alpenglow Spa (Studio K)

Join conference attendees from across the state for a group yoga class on Tuesday, September 12 at 7:00am in Studio K at the Alpenglow spa. This group class is complimentary for conference attendees, but there is a maximum of 20 spaces available, first come, first served.

CONFERENCE RECEPTION

Onsite at the Edgewater Cafe

Join conference attendees from across the state for light snacks, appetizers, and a cash bar on Monday, September 11 from 4:30-6:00 pm. This is a great place catch up with other contractors and OCR staff after the first day of the conference.